Move, Play and Grow with Virtual Summer Recreation Classes Resident Registration Now Open, Nonresident Registration Begins June 10

Gaithersburg, MD – (June 8, 2020) Due to the continuing public health crisis, the City of Gaithersburg is offering many virtual summer recreation classes in lieu of in-person programs. Registration is now open for City of Gaithersburg residents and open registration begins on Wednesday, June 10. Our first wave of virtual classes are designed to keep you moving, thinking and learning all summer long while we all stay safer at home.

With programs for preschoolers, youth, teens, and adults, you'll discover an array of fitness, dance, and special interest classes. Classes take place on specific dates and times via Zoom, and special instructions are offered with the class descriptions. Summer offerings include:

- STEM Forward: Introduction to Engineering
- Dance Camp
- Ballet (different levels from 5 years to adult)
- Core 'n More
- Creative Dance
- Dance Fitness
- Discover Your Character Strengths: Flourish in Your Life
- Eating the Rainbow: Have Fun & Be Healthy
- Family Workshop: Summer Bounty
- Freedom Barre
- Group Piano & Guitar
- Hip Hop
- Mixed Media Collage
- Parent and Child Music and Movement
- Piano for Little Fingers
- Piano Together
- Pilates
- Pommies and Signature Poms
- Power Up Your Brain: Strategies to Optimize Your Brain
- Soul Line Dance
- Ultimate H.I.I.T.
- Zumba Fusion
- Zumba Toning
